

IMPIÖ

Cabin on the shore of Lake Simojärvi

A cozy hut with a beach sauna on the shore of Lake Simojärvi. Place to set up fire near the beach. Direct access to the lake from the cabin. As the saying goes: "There's a hundred islands and a thousand names in Simojärvi." There are trout, zander, perch, pike, Whitefish, vendace, and ide, among other species of fish in Simojärvi.

You are welcome to enjoy the clean air and scenic views of Lake Simojärvi. The cabin is kept warm, and is available for rent, all year round. There are snow mobile routes and ski tracks close by. During the summers, this cabin is popular with families and older folks. Hunters, berry pickers and fishermen also favor the place due to its outstanding location. With luck, you can see the dance of the northern lights in September.

When: Around the year

Where: Simojärvi, Ranua, Heinonpolku 3 D, 97765 Impiö (40 min. drive from the center)

Capacity: 6 persons

Includes:

sleeps 6, includes bedding (linen not included), cooking amenities and tableware. Electric heating, air source heat pump, wood and electric stoves, microwave oven, coffee maker, kettle, refrigerator and outhouse. There's a double bed and mattresses in the interior balcony, 2 beds in the bedroom, and 3 beds in the common area.

There is a fire pit, beach, boat, a place to launch a bigger boat nearby, and a great panoramic view to the lake from the wood heated outdoor sauna.

Bookings and information:

Sakari Niemelä
niemela.sakari@gmail.com

